

Boating and Deep Water Access in CHS

Ashley River

W.O. Thomas, Jr. Boat Landing

This ramp is not close to many beaches or the Harbor, but it offers plenty of space and gorgeous waters. You can find this ramp at 4354 Bridge View Dr. in North Charleston.

Wappoo Cut Boat Ramp

This boat ramp technically puts you at the end of Wappoo Creek, but it is a short jaunt to the end of Ashley River and then the Charleston Harbor. This ramp can be found at the end of Tranquil Drive, right by the Wappoo Creek Bridge.

Shem Creek

Shem Creek Boat Landing

Shem Creek Boat Landing is best suited for smaller watercraft but offers beautiful views and excellent fishing. You can find it at 109 Simmons Street in Mt Pleasant

Cooper River

Bushy Park Boat Landing

This landing features a fishing dock, ample parking, and more. It is best to land your boat only during high tide here, so consider that. You can find this ramp at 500 Bushy Creek Park Road.

Stono River

John P. Limehouse Landing

his landing is next to the John F. Limehouse Memorial Bridge on Johns Island and the Wolf Island Camping Area. It offers boaters some spectacular views of the scenic Stono River. Currents can be fierce and fast depending on tidal conditions, so use caution.

Sol Legare Public Boat Landing

You can find this landing at the end of Sol Legare Road on James Island. This provides access to the Stono River between Abbapoola Creek and Green Creek.

Charleston Harbor

Remley's Point Public Boat Landing

You can find this boat ramp at the western end of 5th Street. This is one of the easiest landings in Charleston to get into, but it is busy, and there are strong currents in the water.

Maritime Center

This full-service marina allows boats up to 120 feet long to launch and dock near Historic Downtown Charleston. You can find it at 10 Wharfside Street, Charleston, SC 29402.

Folly River

Folly River Boat Ramp

This access point is located on Center Street, just over the Folly River Bridge by Folly Beach.
