DIVING IN CHARLESTON

Scuba diving in Charleston offers a unique blend of adventure and history beneath the waves. Dive sites feature vibrant artificial reefs, sunken vessels, and a diverse marine ecosystem. Explore the fascinating shipwrecks of old Civil War ironclads or encounter playful dolphins and schools of fish in the warm Atlantic waters.

Carolina Dive Locker

Carolina Dive Locker is located Mount Pleasant and takes chartered dive trips out every other weekend. Their charter calendar can be found here. They take trips to Lake Hollywood, Ravenel Quarry, & The Cayman Islands!

Joe's Scuba

Joe's Scuba is located in Mount Pleasant and they provide charters on their 26 foot glacier bay island runner catamaran, which is perfect for up to 6 divers plus crew! They also have a group of passionate instructors who teach for the joy of scuba diving with a focus on great training.

Costal Scuba

Costal Scuba is an established scuba shop located in North Myrtle Beach, about two hours from the Charleston area. The are a 5 star PADI dive training and retail center, and they also have charters and scuba rentals!

What You'll See:

- Prehistoric Fossils
- Megalodon Teeth
- Civil War Shipwreck
- Artificial Reefs

Here is another helpful resource for SC diving opportunities!